Parents/Carers Guide to the Secondary Phase at Pen-y-Cwm

To be recognised to be outstanding in everything we do.

Secondary Phase at Pen-y-Cwm

The Secondary Phase Lead is Mrs Rebecca Hodson

The Secondary Phase includes

- ◆ Key Stage 3 (ages 11 to 14)
- ◆ Key Stage 4 (ages 14 to 16)

Secondary Phase classes provide a well planned, vibrant, broad curriculum which is strengthened by a knowledge of each individual child. Each child will have an Individual Education Plan (IEP) which highlights priority learning needs and is reviewed twice per academic year.

Many students have access to accredited courses such as, ASDAN, Signalong, First Aid & Food Technology as they move through the phase. The opportunity to be a Digital Leader a member of the School Council and Criw Cymraeg also plays a large part in pupil voice for this phase.

The Secondary Phase classes include:

- ◆ Caerdydd
- ◆ Aberystwyth
- ◆ Raglan
- ◆ Caerffili
- ◆ Cyfarthfa

The phase work collaboratively to plan a curriculum that is underpinned by the four core purpose of the new Curriculum for Wales as well as a clear link each day to the Areas of Learning and Experience:

- ◆ Language, Literacy and Communication
- ◆ Mathematics And Numeracy
- ◆ Health and Well-Being
- ◆ Science And Technology
- ◆ Humanities
- ◆ Expressive Arts

Joining the Secondary Phase

We ask that you support us in providing your child with a varied, engaging and individualised curriculum in school.

- ◆ £3:00 snack money per week which is used for food technology within the curriculum as well as Healthy Breakfast in class.
- ◆ PE Kit consisting of: Black shorts and White Polo shirt
- ◆ Art apron - an old shirt from home will fit the bill!
- ◆ Wellies and waterproof jacket for outdoor learning lessons.
- ◆ Apron for food technology in class or using at healthy breakfast to help keep uniform clean.
- ◆ Swimming kit and towel if your child has hydro-therapy.
